To Whom it May Concern,

I have been asked by Mr. Rick Sagayadan to provide him with a letter of support for his up-coming new business, and on-behalf of Kla-How-Ya Communications, I am happy to do so.

For the past two years, I have known Rick professionally and personally. On both levels, I can attest that he is a person with strong work ethics and a person with outstanding integrity. Rick brings to the Communication industry, knowledge, experience, mentorship, training skills and a clear and sincere understanding of the First Nations culture. His years of experience and level of professionalism is clearly reflected in many of his video productions. For example, Red Cross production 'Out of the Shadow of Silence': Survivors of the Red Brick School, Young Offenders and last but not least 'Cultural Diversity Embraces Peace.' As a result of his leadership and expertise, Kla-How-Ya Communications enjoyed numerous awards over the years.

Rick is a person whom is highly respected by his peers, members of the community and those who had the pleasure of working with and for him. On behalf of Kla-How-Ya Communications, it gives me pleasure to say that Rick's company is the first to be considered by us for future video productions, special events and projects. We wish him the greatest success in his future business endeavours and look forward to a long lasting relationship. If additional information is required, please do not hesitate to call me at 250-542-5448.

In Friendship,

Lorraine Denommee
Manager of Operations
